DETAILED ACTION

The Drawings filed on 2/22/2005 are accepted by the examiner.

Claim Objections

Claims 3-5, 8 and 9 are objected to because of the following reasons: The acronym HDD is not defined. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipates by Boutaghou et al. (US 6,535,355) hereafter Boutaghou.

Regarding claim 1, Boutaghou teaches at least one rotatable disk (see figures 1 and 2, item 134), at least one slider juxtaposed with the disk (see figure 2, items 126 and 134); a suspension holding the slider (see figure 1 and 3, items 124 and 126); and a roll static attitude (RSA) bias mechanism coupled to the suspension to establish a RSA of the slider (see col. 10, ln. 18-21 and 59-67 and figure 10 and 11, items 126 and 1200).

Art Unit: 2651

Regarding claim 2, Boutaghou teaches wherein the RSA bias mechanism includes at least one piezoelectric structure bonded to the suspension (see col. 12, ln. 49-50 and figure 15 and 16, items 1000, and 126).

Regarding claim 3, Boutaghou teaches a HDD controller actuating the RSA bias mechanism (see col. 10, ln. 63-67 and col. 13, ln. 51-62; it is interpreted by the examiner that the disk drive device, including the RSA, is controlled by the computer system).

Regarding claim 4, Boutaghou teaches wherein the HDD controller actuates the RSA bias mechanism to establish a zero RSA during read and write operations (see col. 6, ln. 10-18, col. 10, ln. 18-21, and see figures 10 and 11, items 126 and 134; there is zero RSA).

Regarding claim 5, Boutaghou teaches wherein the HDD controller actuates the RSA bias mechanism to establish a non-zero RSA during ramp load and unload operations (see col. 7, ln. 35-42, col. 9, ln. 62-65, and col. 10, ln. 63-67).

Regarding claims 6, Boutaghou teaches the RSA is implemented by actuating the RSA bias mechanism to bend a flexure of the suspension to cause an inner edge of the slider to be higher relative to the disk than an outer edge of the slider (see col. 10, ln. 59-67 and figure 5, item 530; it is inherent to an artisan in the art that controlling the roll static attitude of the slider about the roll axis 530, will torque the slider either clockwise or counter-clockwise, causing the inner edge of the slider to be higher than the outer edge of the slider).

Regarding claims 7-10: claims 7-10 have limitations similar to those treated in the above rejection(s), and are met by the references as discussed above.

Regarding claims 11-14: claims 11-14 have limitations similar to those treated in the above rejection(s), and are met by the references as discussed above.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, filed 02/15/05, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-5, 7, 8, and 10-14 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Boutaghou. Boutaghou is relied upon to teach claims 1-14 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e).
